Description

In the characteristic medieval village of Castel San Felice, we offer for sale a portion of a stone house, with a private entrance via a typical external staircase and spread over two levels. The property comprises a large and bright living room with fireplace and kitchenette, a double bedroom and a bathroom. From the master bedroom, a spiral staircase leads to a further bedroom located in the attic of the characteristic tower, easily recognizable even from the outside of the building. From the living room you reach a second attic room, in which another bedroom has been created. From the windows of the house you can admire splendid panoramic views of the village's rooftops and the surrounding hills, which contribute to making the rooms particularly pleasant and bright. The property is in good general condition and retains the typical architectural features of the stone houses in the village. A suitable solution both as a personal residence and as a second home, for those seeking a property with a private entrance, panoramic views, and the charm of a characteristic historical setting.
