Description

PUGLIA – LATIANO (BR) – CONTRADA COLTURA

Ostuni area (Latiano, Brindisi) A rare, ready-to-build opportunity in the quiet countryside yet very close to town, set almost equidistant between San Vito dei Normanni and Latiano. You are within approximately 20-25 minutes of Ostuni, Oria and Francavilla Fontana, about 20 minutes from the Adriatic coast and 30 minutes from Brindisi Airport. Several large supermarkets are just 5-10 minutes by car, adding everyday convenience to the idyllic setting.

The property comprises 8,417 sqm of land with full planning permission granted for a 130 sqm Mediterranean-style villa, a 40 sqm swimming pool, a small lamia outbuilding (c. 8 sqm) to restore, complete with a covered portico for elegant outdoor living. The approved layout provides two bedrooms and two bathrooms, with permission for vaulted ceilings in selected rooms, bringing authentic Apulian character to the contemporary plan.

The grounds present a blank canvas for bespoke landscaping, whether native Mediterranean planting, aromatic borders or olive and vine rows, to frame the architecture and pool.

Access is via a country road; a new entrance gate can be included in the first phase of works. An electricity pole is located at the entrance for straightforward connection, while standard water and sewage solutions can be arranged during construction in line with local practice.

This is a turn-key development pathway: the project's original architect is available to oversee delivery with their trusted construction team, ensuring continuity from concept to completion. With permissions already granted, construction can commence immediately, reducing risk and accelerating timelines.

Location & Lifestyle

Latiano offers year-round amenities, traditional markets and nearby vineyards in a setting notably less touristic than Ostuni, yet perfectly placed for beaches and historic centres. The approved 2-bedroom villa with pool is equally compelling as a private retreat or luxury holiday rental, with strong demand drivers across this micro-market.

Optional Adjoining Plot

A separate, adjoining plot is also available (approx. €70,000) with permission for a two-bedroom, two-bathroom villa, 40 sqm pool and a detached trullo to restore, ideal for creating a private compound, dual-rental strategy or multi-generational arrangement.
