Description

MILAN – SAN SIRO – Three-room apartment undergoing complete renovation.

Exclusive residence designed by Luigi Caccia Dominioni with shared swimming pool surrounded by greenery. Within one of the most elegant and private residential areas in the San Siro area, immersed in a refined condominium park with a large swimming pool for the exclusive use of residents and a concierge service for the whole day, We offer for sale a prestigious residence of approximately 120 m2, currently undergoing complete and careful renovation.

The complex, designed by architect Luigi Caccia Dominioni, still represents a distinctive example of Milanese architecture, characterized by harmonious spaces, privacy, and quality living.

The apartment has been redesigned with a contemporary design aimed at enhancing light, volumes, and continuity between the rooms.

The living area consists of a large living room with an open-plan kitchen and access to the terrace with a pleasant open view of the racecourse and the surrounding greenery.

The property features:

two elegant bedrooms

double services

double exposure

large living area

armored fixtures

internal views of the condominium garden

completely new systems

ducted hot/cold condominium air conditioning cellar of relevance.

Possibility of customizing finishes and materials.

The renovation, still underway, will allow the future owner to finalize the aesthetic details, creating a custom home in a truly prestigious setting.

A shared swimming pool, large private green areas, and full-time concierge service make this property particularly rare in Milan's residential landscape.

The location is strategic and perfectly served:

In the immediate vicinity there are essential services, bars, restaurants, schools, hospitals and quick connections to the city centre thanks to the MM1 red line, with QT8 and Lampugnano stops easily reachable in a few minutes on foot, French High School – Lycée Stendhal de Milan nearby.

An ideal property for those who want to live in an exclusive, private setting, perfectly integrated into the greenery, without sacrificing the convenience of the city's main services.

Information and visits by appointment only.
