Description

In the center of Rome, and precisely in Via Bissolati close to Via Veneto and the US Embassy, Coldwell Banker Krea Case is pleased to offer for rent the use of spaces and services including the exclusive use of a bright, large room fully furnished and equipped with two workstations, wired and air conditioned; located on the first floor of a modern high representative office recently renovated and overlooking Via Bissolati.
The rental includes: use of a large and elegant meeting room for shared use upon reservation, wired, air conditioned and with large LED monitor; use of the domicile to establish the registered office/professional domicile (possibility of establishing the registered office of the company or the domicile of the professional at the firm, receiving correspondence, possibility of using the address on headed paper, websites, advertising material); concierge service; condominium charges and expenses. The following services are included: cleaning services (two times per week); heating and cooling; annual maintenance of the air conditioning system and fire prevention equipment; utilities (water and electricity); use of the license plate holder panel on the entrance door side; use of a license plate panel located in the entrance hall of the building.
The rental is immediately available and will be contractually foreseen for the duration of one year with tacit renewal unless canceled; the proposed request for the monthly fee is to be considered in addition to legal charges.
The prestigious and very central area is served exceptionally by public transport such as trains, the underground and public road transport; the building is also located outside the limited traffic zone to be easily reached by own means of transport.
Practicing your profession in a dynamic, elegant environment shared with established professionals by domiciling your office in the center of Rome in a prestigious address is the rare opportunity offered by this location.
The images and proportions shown in the advertisement are not to be considered the subject of a contractual obligation, but are to be understood as purely illustrative, any renderings published together with the photos have been made available for the sole purpose of giving an idea of the usability of the furnished spaces.
