Description

ROME VIA SERVILIA Coldwell Banker Krea Case is pleased to offer for sale a beautiful apartment in the Anagnina area, near Metro A and a short distance from Ciampino train station.
The property is located on the first floor of a small building of only two floors, in a large, airy and very quiet context. The internal spaces are well distributed, the entrance is onto a large bright living room with exit onto a large balcony; the kitchen is truly habitable and has access to a second balcony; in the sleeping area we find two large bedrooms, one of which has an exit onto a small terrace; the bathrooms are both with windows, one with a shower and the other with a bathtub. The property is in excellent condition and does not require major maintenance work, climate control. The apartment is equipped with an armored door, security gates on all windows, mosquito nets, air conditioning and awnings. The apartment is completed by a comfortable garage that can also contain two medium-sized cars, and a large cellar.
