Description

The property in question is a large garage for sale in Costa Volpino, located in a prestigious, quiet, and well-served residential area. And not only that, it's in a residence accessible only to residents and guarded 24/7.

The condominium fees, just 15 euros per month, make this solution ideal for those looking for an affordable opportunity with no surprises.

With a total floor area of approximately 29 square meters and a height of 3.30 m2, the interior space is optimally distributed and can be used to its full potential.

The garage is in excellent condition, thanks to a recent renovation that has made the property modern and functional.

The interior finishes are of high quality, using resistant and long-lasting materials.

The area's numerous amenities are also certainly worth a visit, including its proximity to shops, schools, public transportation, the beach, and restaurants. It's also close to Love's town center and port.

An unmissable opportunity for those looking for a garage in a strategic location and at an affordable price.
